AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Ingredients whose virtues are universally acknowledged as the best remedies for pulmonary complaints have been collected by the assiduous care of a scientific chemist, and combined in this preparation. Every one of them is selected for its peculiar power to subdue the disease which afflicts the sufferer. Hence the CHERRY PECTORAL is the most effectual remedy that can be made for the relief and cure of all diseases of the throat and lungs.

From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica, Bowdoin College

Dear Sir: I have always recommended your preparations of the Cherry Pectoral in the practice of my profession, and have found them in the highest degree useful. I believe them to be the best remedies we possess for the diseases of the throat and lungs.

Yours, respectfully, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

From the Hamilton Mills, Lowell

Dr. J. C. Ayer: I have for a number of years been subject to a severe cough, which would confine me to the house during the winter season. Your Cherry Pectoral has relieved me of it entirely.

Yours, JOSEPH CLARK.

From an Overseer in the Hamilton Mills, Lowell

Dr. J. C. Ayer: I have for a number of years been subject to a severe cough, which would confine me to the house during the winter season. Your Cherry Pectoral has relieved me of it entirely.

Yours, JOSEPH CLARK.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1851.

☞ The attempt of the Jeffersonian to write the history of political measures, is simply ridiculous or ridiculously simple. No fact is better established than that in 1816 the protective policy was a measure of the then Democratic party and that that party chartered the Bank of the United States. Gen. Jackson himself was in favor of protection, and at a later day he stated that he could furnish a plan of a U. S. Bank which would be satisfactory.

Subsequently to this, as any one conversant with the political history of the times knows the party lines which for years had divided men were broken up, and under this state of things Mr Monroe was elected President, having occupied the post of Secretary of State and then followed him, John Quincy Adams who was also Secretary of State. The politicians at Washington, however, did not like the appearance of their chances for the presidency if every one must first serve as Secretary of State, and gerrymandering became the order of the day to break up the line of said precedents and succession. This brought other candidates into the field, but unpledged to party, although it served as the nucleus around which parties subsequently formed. During Mr Adams' administration one of the caucus bands resolved themselves into the "Democratic Republican party"—took that name and resolved to hang by & through thick or thin. This party was built up under the administration of General Jackson and was generally known as the Jackson party. In its course every element of finance and revenue and the bestowment of office and whatever could be brought to mix and mingle in the political cup were violently stirred and shaken together, and out of this compound was precipitated the modern locofoco hatred of protection to American labor, and to the old Bank.

The attempt to bridge over the gap in the history of the distinct political parties in this country, from the war of 1812 to the administration of Andrew Jackson, during which period there was a complete break up in a bit of political rascality which can only be effective with those who have short memories or are feeble readers. The real facts in the case—the real state of the matter—is as clear as light to every one who wishes to understand them and will look for them with moderate diligence.

From the birth of the present existence of the new split and broken loco party, under the skillful nursing of Duff Green down to the present time, that party has been for and opposed every leading measure of the Government, by no means excepting the now vaunted Subtreasury, which was the worst of all deformed.

Since the retirement of Gen. Jackson this party has succeeded in electing their president but once, and then merely by the skin of their teeth and that by an accident in a single State.

That they had the power under Tyler, the traitor, is conceded, because he, being a weak, ambitious and corrupt man, thought it easier for him to go to his like, than to remain with his friends and walk uprightly.

This brief and hurried glance at the familiar history of our country we deem appropriate when efforts are made to misrepresent and pervert that history.

☞ The Jeffersonian can see no signs of any necessity, or any desire on the part of the country for a change in the tariff and for adopting the revenue measures of the whigs. Perhaps not, nor very strange.

The large amount of American stocks in Europe, both principal and interest of which are to be paid the large amount of land which has been reduced in the market so far as the Treasury is concerned, the depression felt in many vital matters, elements of the labor of the country; the frauds which the present system encourage in the revenue; all these and more, are among the active causes for a modification and a change of the tariff. We are happy to learn that these matters begin to claim the earnest attention of Congress, and that late advices from Washington confirm the rumor of a proposed change of the tariff. The House Finance Committee have agreed to report a Tariff bill; Ten per cent is to be added to the present duty in lieu of taking the average for ten years past. Besides Iron, are included Woollens, Hemp and Copper but not Cotton. Indigo and Dye Stuffs are to be admitted free. Frauds will be suppressed by a Board of Appraisers, and the difficulty under the Woodbury decision avoided.

The New York Tribune's correspondent says that in less than three weeks there will be active in Congress, tending to important and favorable modifications in the present Tariff and although the change may not be all that is desired, it will be modified so as to be much more acceptable than at present.

The correspondent of the New York Courier says:—

The friends of the Tariff from different sections have now settled upon the terms of a proposition, to be presented at the first favorable opportunity. They agree upon 37 1-2 or 40 per cent, as the case may be, for Iron, taking the average of ten preceding years as the standard of valuation. They agree that the value of the imported articles at the time and place of exportation shall be regarded as the value in assessing the duty. They agree that all manufactured articles consisting in part or whole of hemp, raw sugar and wool, shall pay a duty of 10 per cent. more than the raw material. They agree with the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury, that the time of imported goods may remain in the Custom House after the duty shall be three years instead of one—They also agree upon restoring the free list of 1846.

The discriminating duty of 10 per cent in favor of the raw material is confined to three articles; Mr. Corwin's suggestion in regard to the Warehousing system has been adopted.

It is supposed that the Bill will be added as a rider to the River and Harbor Bill for the land of Diplomatic Bill.

☞ On Friday, the carriage attached to the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, was crossing Market Street Bridge for the purpose of exercising the patients. A young lady, (Miss Myers,) sprang out of the carriage, and with one leap cleared the railing, and descended into the water, a distance of about thirty one feet. She floated for a few moments and was rescued by a person in a boat. Her escape from death was considered miraculous.

☞ A Philadelphia Bonnet, the fugitive slave who was remanded to the custody of his master, has been purchased for about $300, and set at liberty.

Thoughts on Politics.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

I would again advert to the conflict in the heart of the conscientious citizen, when he finds, or imagines he finds, a conflict in the laws of his State and the laws of his Maker. He has sworn to obey the Constitution of the civil power, but he is under stronger obligations to the commands of God because his oath presupposes that there is no discrepancy between the requirements of the law and the divine will. In cases to be the routine of his duties and unperturbed with such discrepancy meets him—The law of the State commands him to murder—the law of God commands him to forbear. What shall he do? When the rule no doubt as to the correctness of his decision as to this discrepancy, there can be no doubt of his duty how to act. The divine law of course must govern, and this constitution has so provided but the trouble arises from the question who shall determine whether there be this variance in the two commands. The constitution has provided a tribunal for this very purpose and we will suppose that tribunal to have determined that the law is right and just and must be obeyed. If this be still unsatisfactory to the citizen, what relief has he? Is it a law paramount to take it not. So far as pertains to this single point the law of conscience is paramount but in the performance of the duty of conscience he must take care that it act not on other than himself. The law of the State is enacted by his tacit or implied consent, that actual consent, and he cannot consistently oppose it. He may—he must necessarily refuse his positive obedience, but he will not, he cannot resist it. If penalties attend this course, he must endure them, till through the provision of the constitution, he may find relief. Happy would it have been if the elevated tribunal which constitutes our constitution and our laws, were infallible but as they are not, fortunately is it that their decisions are ultimate and final. Still there is a character in the tribunal almost infallible and a moral power upon citizens.

Slavery in our nation is a moral hideous incubus—a monstrous anomaly. It weighs upon us as a fatal incubus and cannot be thrown off. It stirs within us a volcano which cannot be resisted. The fires are unquenchable. It is a very centre and vortex of unrighteousness. Yet—and well will it be for us if we feel it—the real resting place and bosom of liberty. And with all this baseness, how strange it has been fostered and sustained. Branded as piracy by the nations, found and sanctioned and guaranteed by the same, and all in one command, how a nation can stand amid the actions and expressions of those of our statesmen and legislators in regard to its character. Slavery in the abstract, say they, is unjust, inhuman, sinful but such is not at present to the State, justifiable and tolerable. And the opinion has been adopted by a considerable proportion of the general community—In the slave States opinions are known to prevail that slavery, even in the abstract, is right and consistent with the law of God, thus bringing a fearful conflict of war with dominion and the will of God that all the preaching efforts of W. L. Garrison or Abby Folsom or Mr. Calhoun stands powerless in this abominable folly, a fanatic of most fanatical eminence!

Whether slavery is constitutional, seems to have been settled in the affirmative and so I consider it to be regarded, notwithstanding I believe that decision to be erroneous and will one day be reversed. Who believes that the late law for the restoration of escaped slaves is unconstitutional? Yet think we may anticipate a decision from the same high tribunal that it is unconstitutional. But why should I feel conscientious constitutional duties to obey when every view varies from the legal construction. Why should I refuse to take the official oath to support the constitution of the United States as one of our citizens has done, because my views do not accord with the judiciary? And not independently in this do I believe as I please? Most surely I may. But when I am called to specific action by the disputed power, I must either obey or suffer the penalty of refusal, or resign. If called upon to assist in the arrest of a fugitive slave, I would refuse. If called upon by the slave in making his escape, I would minister to him the same hospitality that I would to one who were not a slave. If I were offered the office of Marshal, I would accept it conveniently and agreeably so to do; but when called to the duty of arresting a slave I would refuse to obey and take the consequences.

I can see gentleman, that by this course I make myself obnoxious to the enemy of whom who affect to appropriate whomsoever believes in a thing.

I doubt as much the wisdom and policy of this affected disparagement of the civility and courtesy of life. There is nothing more conservative than this recognizance of a higher law. It is that which most emphatically distinguishes our civilization from the domineering of the Sublime Porte and the Czar of Russia, such a principle is not known. The word of the executive is the highest law—no one looks for one or imagine there can be another, but in our country the very foundation of civil rights is that the law of the land must be subservient to the law of God. The difficulty is these times appears to be that we do not all seem to know precisely how to appropriate our allegiance. To render to Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's and to God the things which are God's—Christ's example, as a citizen, was, no doubt, perfect and while he held the higher law as paramount, he was obedient to the law of the state unto death.

Many of our citizens seem to imagine that inasmuch as the fugitive slave law, in their most conscientious belief, is opposed to the higher law, the law of God, they may oppose it. But it seems to me that in this they are mistaken. The opinion is founded on the false ground that human legislation may be—must be perfect and unless so, has or should have no force.

A LOCOFOCO IN BANGOR.

RESOURCES OF PENNSYLVANIA.—The Montgomery Co. Ledger says the territory of Pennsylvania contains about 40,000 square miles. Her wheat crop of 1847 reached 14,160,000 bushels. Her coal fields, anthracite and bituminous, are estimated to cover 18,000 square miles. Her product of iron (pig and castings) in 1843 reached 333,000 tons. She has Iron enough to supply a continent of a hundred millions of inhabitants with the endless variety of household and agricultural implements, and to construct their machinery for manufacture and transportation. She has coal enough to warm them in winter, to cook their food at all seasons, and to generate the power which shall put the machinery in motion to manufacture the various fabrics which the necessities or comforts of civilized life demand, or which luxury and taste desire—and last, but not least, to send them, steamships to any part of the world.

Penobscot and Kennebec Railroad.

To the Editor of the Daily Whig and Courier.

I agree with your correspondent "that if the citizens of Bangor want this road built they must help build it." But your correspondent is in error in regard to any arrangements having been entered into with any road. It is for the interest of the Waterville and St. Lawrence road to form a connection with the Penobscot road. The Kennebec road has the same interest to form this connection, and each of these roads seeing where their interest lies, are ready to offer such considerations for a connection as, in the judgment of the Directors of the Penobscot road, will insure to the stockholders their real interest.

Your correspondent may rest assured that no arrangement will be made with these roads that will sacrifice the interest of Bangor, on the contrary none will be made except as will best promote the interest of Bangor.

And I will add again that Bangor men are the men that must see to it that this road is built—they must devise the ways and means, for they will have no road.

BURNING IN WOMAN. We find in a California diary the following glorification of a commendable female quality. "A man of few words" is very well, but "a woman of few words" is a matter open to argument:

"I encountered to-day, in a ravine, some three miles distant among the gold-washers, a woman from San Jose. She was at work with a large wooden bowl by the side of the stream. I asked how long she had been there, and how much gold she averaged a day. She replied, 'Three weeks and an ounce.' Her reply reminded me of an anecdote of the late Judge B——, who met a girl returning from market. 'How deep did you find the stream?' said he, 'and did you get for your butter?' queried the Judge. 'Up to the knee and ninepence,' was the reply. 'Ah!' said the Judge to himself; 'she is the girl for me;' no words lost then! turning back, proposal was accepted, and married the next week; and a more happy couple the conjugal bonds never joined together; the nuptial lamp never waned; its ray was steady and clear to the last. He who paddle off and on for seven years, and are at last, perhaps, capsized, take a lesson of the Judge. That up to the knee and ninepence' is worth all the rose lettered and melancholy rhymes ever penned."

SPIRIT KNOCKINGS.—Mr. C. C. Burr is now exciting great attention in New York, by unravelling the mystery of Spiritual Knockings. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Sunday Despatch furnishes the following account of one of his evening entertainments.—Of course the lecture in question was very good. It was eloquent, impassioned, poetic and effective. Mr. B. reads with industry, collates with care, thinks with great precision and clearness, and throws off his facts and sequences with a dash, ease and graceful flow of expression that are really fascinating. He is a ripe and finished scholar, as well as a polished man of the world and a close observer; and of all these advantages he has abundantly availed himself in these lectures on the Mysterious and Intellectual Phenomena.—His explanations in regard to the Spirit Knocking were exceedingly felicitous and occasioned no small display of delight and approbation. He insists that the rappings are produced by a peculiar action of the toes, a sort of sounding board being fashioned of the sole of the foot. He professes to have acquired the whole art and mystery of a lady-rapper into whose kindly opinion he had handsomely ingratiated himself, and he illustrated his position by a series of 'knockings' that were, certainly sparkling, fully as good as the original, and resembled them very much indeed. There certainly was a slight difference in the sound; those occasioned by Mr. B. being somewhat bolder and more distinct in the uttering, than those of Mrs. Fish, for instance, of the famous company of 'Rochester spirit-rockers.' But, of the several ladies connected with the Rochester imposture, no two received exactly the same kind of 'knocks' from the 'spirit' in answer to their inquiries, or, in other words, no two of them produced the 'rappings' precisely alike. This was, possibly, owing to the peculiar power and practice exerted by each, in her toes, and possibly something to the shape and character of the toes themselves, omitting to say anything about the effect on the sound a little variety in the soles of the shoes might occasion upon so delicate a thing as the human ear. Altogether, then, we may say, that if Mr. Burr's Spirit rappings are not the thing itself, they must be—for we never listened to anything more like the Simon-Pure than the genuine, unadulterated article.

But, the best of the joke was, that Mr. B. commenced by affecting that he could hold communion with the spirit-world, and by offering to put any portion of the audience en rapport, as the Mesmerizers say, with the disembodied inhabitants of the 'life to come.' One gentleman volunteered at length, to test the question, and demanded to hear from the apparition of his deceased grandmother! The old lady came, much to his alarm, and by spelling the alphabet, as she knocked, she not only informed him who she was, and furnished the state of health of certain of his acquaintances, but hinted so distinctly that there was a seat waiting for him at the Spirit supper-table, that he actually fainted! Another gentleman asked to hear from his wife. Of course she came, designated her name, the time since her death, and solemnly implored him to take especial care of her youngest babe! The tears rushed to his eyes and he wept like a child!

It was almost impossible afterwards, to induce these gentlemen to believe that they had been humbugged! The scene was so solemn; the answers (shrewdly guessed at) were so correct; the 'knockings' appeared to be supernatural, and to come so indubitably from the floor, the table, &c. God well know how the ear can be played upon by a master of acoustics,) that they wished to believe the clever trick a veritable reality, and were chagrined to discover that they could not be permitted to go away imposed upon! The Rochesters and 'Troy Spirits' never did anything better, and it was easy to perceive how even men of learning and genius, could be deceived into credulity in the premises, though, to speak the truth, men of learning and genius are as readily humbugged as fools, and more readily than men of ordinary intelligence—just as the blaze of light blinds us quite as much as profound darkness, extremes being very much alike in their effects, however different in their principle. There are some humbugs so excellent that a man would be a fool not to be taken in with them, for fools will not always credit that which wiser men, in their erudition, think neither impossible or improbable.

FOOT RUNNING. Charles W. Herman, a green New Hampshire boy of 17, who calls himself the "Swamp Indian," made a wager that he would run from Northampton to Amherst and back, a distance of 7½ miles, in two consecutive hours. On Wednesday the race came off between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock. The track was icy, and it was snowing quite hard, but he reached Amherst in one hour and two minutes, and at half past 11 had run half the distance back, when the snow troubled him so much that he gave up the job, without apparently being fatigued. The same boy walked 150 miles last Spring, eating but once, and drinking only a glass of liquor on the road.—Springfield Republican.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Gazette writes—"The only piece of news I have heard to-day, is a rumor that our friend Goodrich (more generally known as Peter Parley) has been appointed Consul at Paris. It is only a rumor, but I had it from a source entitled to credit, and believe it, though it may prove otherwise."

JOHN TYLER was inaugurated 3rd Congressman by the Whig Convention at Dover, N. H.

Election of U. S. Senator for the Short Term by the Senate of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Jan 28th.

The Massachusetts Senate to-day chose Robert Rantoul, Jr., Esq., U. S. Senator for the short term, in place of Mr. Winthrop. Rantoul 21, Winthrop 18, Phillips 2.

☞ Dr James B. Smith has been found guilty of manslaughter or murder in the second degree on the person of Miss Carswell, at Saco, with drugs and medicines. He was sentenced to the State Prison for life.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Audubon, the celebrated ornithologist, died this forenoon, near this city, aged between 70 and 80.

The Arctic reached her dock, at 8 o'clock.—She encountered a great deal of ice on the passage to Halifax, doing considerable damage to her buckets, &c. It is supposed the Atlantic also got in among the ice.

NEW ORLEANS Jan. 23. The trial of Senator Henderson for being concerned in the Cuban expedition has been concluded. The jury after considerable consultation came into court and stated that they were unable to agree on a verdict, and were discharged.

CHARLESTON, S. C. Jan. 26. The schooner Maria from San Juan de Nicragua bound for N. York, with 30 returned Californians on board as passengers, put in here today in a distressed state, being leaky and out of provisions.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27th. The House Committee have agreed upon a plan for the extension of the Capitol by additional wings on the north and south. The Senate Committee have not yet concurred, but they are expected to do so at the next meeting.

The Intelligencer of this morning says that a delegation from the American Colonization Society waited yesterday upon the Hon Daniel Webster, and urged him to recognize the republic of Liberia. Mr. Webster addressed the delegation at some length in favor of their proposition, and referred the Committee to President Fillmore, who also spoke encouragingly of the proposition.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, 25th.

In the Senate, Mr. Yulee called up the bill to equalize the grants of public land to the several States for internal improvements, and spoke in support of it.

Mr. Hamlin called up the bill limiting the liabilities of ship-owners, but by request of Messrs. Badger and Hale it was laid on the table.

Thirty-seven private bills were received from the House, and referred to appropriate committees. Five bills from the private calendar engrossed yesterday, were taken up and passed. The bill remunerating Oregon for expenses in the war with the Cayus Indians, was taken up, explained by Mr. Douglass, and ordered to be engrossed. Bill creating additional collection districts in Oregon, &c. &c.

Bill authorizing the purchase of 280,000 acres of land in Minnesota for the Sioux Indians was debated and laid on the table.

Mr Hale called up the House bill explanatory of laws granting pensions to widows of revolutionary soldiers. Mr Underwood opposed at length, and it was laid upon the table.

The Senate then went into executive session. Adjourned.

The House debated a bill for the relief of Charlotte Lynch, only surviving child of Col. Ebenezer Grey of the 8th regiment of the Connecticut Line. After various attempts to stave it off by calling for the yeas and nays, &c., it passed by 11 majority.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

In the Senate Mr Ewing presented a petition from Ohio, in favor of the line of steamers to Africa.

Mr. Cooper presented petitions from Philadelphia, for steamers from that place to Brazil, also large number for modification of the Tariff.

Mr Mason presented resolutions of the Virginia legislature urging further appropriations to satisfy Virginia outstanding land warrants.

Mr Dickinson submitted the memorial of the N. Y. Colonization Society, also the joint resolutions of the New York legislature on the subject of cheap postage.

Mr. Seward presented the petitions of 56 citizens of Yates County, 59 of Cayuga County and 56 of Niagara County for the repeal of the fugitive law, and 26 from Niagara County for the repeal of laws supporting slavery in the District of Columbia. He moved their reference to the Judiciary Committee, but on motion of Mr. Dawson they were laid on the table.

Mr Whitcomb presented the credentials of Mr Wright, the new Senator from Indiana, for six years from the 4th of March next.

Various petitions and reports were presented.

Mr. Benton called up the bill to pay Missouri the amount of the two per cent fund reserved on sales of public land.

Mr Shields supported the bill.

Mr. Clay said that at the proper time he could prove to the Senate that Missouri was not a further creditor to the United States on account of the two per cent fund. He was too feeble to-day, but if the bill was postponed would hereafter do so.

Mr. Benton was willing, and the bill was laid on the table.

The Senate took up the bill to ascertain and settle private land claims in California. This bill was originally introduced early in the session.

Mr. Gwin moved a substitute for Mr Fremont's bill, which was agreed to in Committee of the Whole.

When the bill was reported to the Senate Mr Gwin offered a substitute for Mr Gwin's substitute, and then all the substitutes and the original bill were referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Committee then reported back a new bill as substitute for the original and all the substitutes.

The question was on agreeing to the substitute reported by the Committee of the Judiciary.

Mr. Berrien explained the substitute.

Mr Benton and Mr Berrien were engaged in debate upon the bill until the adjournment.

In the House, Mr Baily moved to make the bills for the payment of the Navy, Revolutionary and other pensions, and for the support of the West Point Academy, the Post Office Department, and the Indian Department, the special order for to-morrow, and until disposed of, not to interfere with the special orders. Objection being made, Mr Baily moved to suspend the rules. Lost.

Several unsuccessful attempts were made to introduce bills and resolutions.

The House went into committee on the bill to supply the deficiencies in appropriations for the present fiscal year.

Two hours were occupied in discussing an appropriation of $12,000 for payment of clerks to facilitate carrying out the bounty land law of last September, but without coming to any conclusion the committee rose and the House adjourned.

THE CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD!
THE TRIBUNE FOR 1851.
☞ Now is the time to Subscribe. ☜

THE DAILY TRIBUNE

IS issued every morning, except Sunday, on a large sheet of five white pages, forming eight pages of six columns each, or about the size of the Boston Daily Newspapers. About six of these pages are new every morning, the aggregate of Editorial, News and Miscellanies being greater than of any other paper in America, and probably more than any two or three in Europe, though its price is but half that of other first class Dailies in this Country, and less than one fourth the cost of similar Journals in England. Two Evening Editions are issued to supply each subscriber with the latest news up to the hour when his copy must be mailed.

THE TRIBUNE is edited with great care, and numerous special articles on all matters pertaining to the Politics and Social Welfare of our own Country, to Foreign Countries, to Literature, Science, Art, Commerce, Agriculture, Mechanics, &c., &c., by able correspondents in London, Paris, Constantinople, &c. &c., in California and its City Department is in charge of BAYARD TAYLOR, assisted by an efficient corps of Reporters. No expense or trouble will be spared to render it, in every respect, all that a first class Daily Paper should be, and to make it indispensable to every man who wishes to keep fully informed of all current events, Political, Social, Literary, Scientific, Commercial, Financial and Agricultural, as they occur.

Terms for the Daily, $6 per year, in advance; three copies for $15; five copies for $20; four, in advance, 2 copies for $5, 10 copies for $20.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE

Containing nearly all the Miscellaneous matter of the Daily, especially such as is of local interest, or has been superseded by Political and Commercial news, is issued every Tuesday and Friday, at $3 per year, in advance.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

Is issued every Thursday morning, and contains most of the matter in the Daily, with more attention to Political Discussion, and less to Commercial Reports, than either of the others. It is, of course, the cheapest paper published, being afforded at 31 cents per year, in advance, or four copies for $1. Twelve copies for $3. Twenty copies for $5. Single copies $1,00 per year, in advance; three months, 25 cents.

Terms cash in advance. Address
GREELEY & McELRATH,
Publishers, 154 Nassau St., N. Y.

☞ Notes of all specie paying Banks in the United States, taken for subscriptions to this paper at par. Monies enclosed in a letter to our Editors, and deposited in any Post-Office in the United States, may be considered at our risk. No description of Bills on Canada can be received, as the Postmaster.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The New York Tribune.—The Providence (R. I.) Morning Herald says: We think no candid person will fail to recognize a like freedom of the leading American Journals. It says the following, from the Boston Evening Transcript, is the fair result of the Journals of New York: "The Tribune, though it has a circulation, place the New York Herald, and probably more than any two of the other first class papers in the city, is but one fourth that of other first class Dailies in this Country, and less than one fourth the cost of similar Journals in England. Two Evening Editions are issued to supply each subscriber with the latest news up to the hour when his copy must be mailed."

The Tribune is edited with great ability. Horace Greeley has special charge of all matters pertaining to the Politics and Social welfare of our own Country, to Foreign Countries, to Literature, Science, Art, Commerce, Agriculture, &c. &c., by able correspondents in London, Paris, Constantinople, &c. &c. In California and its City Department is in charge of BAYARD TAYLOR, assisted by an efficient corps of Reporters. No expense or trouble will be spared to render it, in every respect, all that a first class Daily Paper should be, and to make it indispensable to every man who wishes to keep fully informed of all current events, Political, Social, Literary, Scientific, Commercial, Financial and Agricultural, as they occur."—Boston Evening Transcript.

The New York Times.—The Tribune is one of the best newspapers published in this country. Its news is early and authentic, and its literary matter excellent.—Freeman's Journal.

☞ The New York Tribune appeared, on Friday last, in a new dress, and is marked prosperity is a just tribute to one of the most able journals in the world. The intelligence and position of Mr. Greeley is well known, for, side by side, he has stood with Clay and Bayard Taylor and their full peace to the whole country. The Tribune's reviews are written with great ability, and its news department is furnished with the latest intelligence from every quarter of the globe. In the list of its correspondents are found many of the ablest minds of the country, and the independence of its tone and position on the leading questions of reform, now agitating the public mind, draw around it a host of supporters. Numerous changes are constantly occurring in the political world around us, but we find none in the Tribune; it is the same consistent friend of human liberty, the same ardent advocate of the pretentious principle, the same generous supporter of all practical and beneficial reforms, which it was at the commencement of its career. If any should not take a New York paper, we commend The Tribune to them as the best readable journal we meet.—Newark (N. J.) Mercury.

☞ We are much obliged to The New York Tribune for an exchange. Having had several good notices of it, we find it almost indispensable. It comes nearest to a universal American and Foreign News Journal of any that has fallen under our observation. In politics we do not like it, but we do admire its energy, its pluck, its dare-devil style of independence, in proving the abuses in Government and the absurd conventionalities of society, and do not only printing out what some reform, but leading to them. If it were not for The Tribune, and many others, that has given us a new impulse and a popularity we which it the was never note.—Bangor (Me.) Whig & Courier.

Proposals for Stamps.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
January 16, 1851.

PROPOSALS will be received at this Department until the 4th day of March next for furnishing stamps for the use of the post offices in the United States for four years from the first day of April next, when ordered by the Department, of the following description, viz:

The name of the office and State in circular form, cut from a solid block of hardened steel, and made in such manner as to admit of letters and figures to designate the month and day, with a thumb screw to keep such letters and figures in place.—Such stamps, as the letters composing the same, to be of the same size as those now made, altered and arranged so as to contain but three letters each of the same size now in use, and to be cast from solid blocks of hardened steel. Figures, for the days of the month, from 01 to 31, inclusive, to be made of the hardened metal, and of the size last aforesaid.

Also stamps with the words "paid" and "free," of the form of those now in use.

Also, stamps with figures denoting the rates of postage, and similar to those now in use.

All of the above stamps to be made of hardened steel.

The proposals must also contain separate bids for the circular stamp, with the months and figures.

Also, for each separate piece, containing the month consisting of three letters.

Also, for each separate piece, containing the date of the month.

Also, for complete sets of months and figures.

Also, for each separate piece with the words "paid" and "free."

Also, for each separate piece with the names denoting the rates of postage. The making of the different sets will not however, be given to different contractors, but the proposal for the whole which is deemed most favorable to the Department will be accepted. The Department reserves to itself the right to reject all proposals if this price is deemed extravagant.

Specimens of the various kinds of stamps required can be seen at the appointment office of the Department.

Bounty Land---Pensions.

THE subscribers will pay particular attention to the prosecution of claims to Bounty Land, to which all, whether militia or regular troops, who served for one month in the war of 1812 are entitled. By the act of Congress of September, 1850, those who enlisted, volunteered, or were drafted for one year and served nine months, are entitled to 160 acres of land—and those who enlisted, &c. for six months and served for four months, are entitled to 80 acres—those who served one month to 40 acres. In the event of the death of the soldier, his widow or minor children are entitled to the bounty.
We will also buy the warrants and pay the highest prices, or at the option of the holder cause them to be located on the best lands of the United States at the West.
Terms moderate, and no charge made unless the claim is allowed.

THE Great American Remedy

FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all diseases of the Chest, and Lungs, has not been so long before the public, and its reputation so well established, both from recommendations of Physicians, and from the invariable testimony of its infallible virtues, by all who have used it, that its sale has become immensely large, and it must very soon supercede the use of every other article named for the same and kindred complaints. As a family medicine, it can never be outdone. In double the usual dose, it almost invariably vomits the child in the first stages of croup, and relieves and quiets it immediately. For quite a number of years it has been the favorite and universal remedy in all the cases named, of one of the most celebrated and skilful Physicians.

Sold wholesale and retail by R. K. HARDY, at No 3 Harlow's Block, Bangor, and by Druggists generally throughout the country. All orders will be promptly attended to. nov 15

SCROFULA.

This dire, fell disease in all shapes of its terrific forms, yields to the introduction of Dr GAYS BLOOD PURIFIER. The ointment should also be used freely on the neck in bathing the face, previous to the use of the Blood Purifier, which, by its wonderful, peculiar combination, unfailingly and effectually with the blood, that as soon as it is taken, it is absorbed by the circulation, and cleanses the blood throughout the whole system. Thus, by making the pure, destroys the poison humors throughout the entire body, and eradicates completely and forever the cause of the disease.

It is the last well to mention that Dr. GAYS BLOOD PURIFIER is entirely vegetable in its composition, as nutritious to the constitution as water! yet when disease has taken hold, or when abuse has to be expelled from the system, it will be found the most powerful and effectual remedy ever discovered.

Mercurial Affections.

Diseases caused by the improper use of Mercury, are readily cured by the use of the BLOOD PURIFIER, in hopelessly Mercurial Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, Weakness, Loss of Appetite, &c.

Pimples on the Face are easily removed by using one or two Bottles, and in fact all and every disorder which is caused or produced by impure Blood.

CONSUMPTION!

This terrible and much dreaded malady, the scourge and bane of our climate, in its first stages yields readily to the curative and powerful properties of Dr GAY'S BLOOD PURIFIER, and in the more advanced stages, it checks its progress, and relieves the afflicted by with the Blood, thus preventing the formation of tubercles, and thus arresting the disease, and giving the sufferer the advantage of the unerring principle.

Muscular Strength

and activity in the bodily and mental energies are given by increased purer blood, which also increases the color of countenance and lips! implies not only that the Blood is purified and nourished, but that the BLOOD PURIFIER actually possesses the property of increasing the quantity of Blood in a deficient system.

Children of a Scrofulous Habit, and those who are suffering from any kind of a humor, if is an early period, to the use of that they take it early and readily, as it has a wonderful effect in removing all impurities from the blood of the little sufferers.

BRONCHITIS

and Diseases of the Throat and Lungs—Dr GAYS BLOOD PURIFIER has a wonderful effect upon those afflicted with any Complaints. These diseases are caused by Impure Blood, which the BLOOD PURIFIER, by acting directly upon the Blood, removes the cause of the disease and thus relieves having nothing to sustain it, soon are completely and effectually cured.

In fact there is no disease that Dr GAYS BLOOD PURIFIER cures speedily and effectually.

Chronic Complaints

and Debilities, arising from the impure or weak and impoverished Blood.

DYQUART BOTTLES.

For Purifying the Blood, and for the Cure OF SCROFULA IN ITS SECULAR DISEASES RHEUMATISM, CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS, SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, BORN ULCERS, LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, SCALD HEAD, RHEUM, CONSUMPTION, FEVER SORES, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, ERYSIPELAS, LOSS OF HAIR, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, PUSTULES, BOILS, &c.

In this preparation we have all the restorative properties of the tonic combined and concentrated in their utmost strength and efficacy. Experiments were made in the manufacture of this medicine until it was found it could not be improved. Accordingly, we find it recruited to its most universally ill cases of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, with the continued action of the Vital Powers in the work of removing disease of the skin by acting on the internal organs, which convey the poison to the surface, and producing an inflammation, rendering the skin unhealthy upon the stomach, and bowels in the same time restores their vigor and tone. In fact it operates on the entire system at the same time, thus removing the cause of disease itself, and all symptoms necessarily disappear. The rapid by which this remedy recovers the health of the system, is truly astonishing. Such cases as this triple influence is exerted by it, which it is applied for, are experienced its effects. Its power to the accumulated results of years of suffering, and to convince the most skeptical of its extraordinary virtues.

Lieut. Alden of the Army has kindly sent us the following letter from Columbia:—

McKENNEY, Jan. 16, 1850.

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands: Gentlemen—I take leave to call your attention to the following facts, hoping it may lead to the saving of your invaluable medicine from other unfortunate sufferers as I have been, that they may profit by it, as I did.

I arrived here from the United States by the overland route, about the first of October last. A few days after, I was attacked with a very disagreeable eruption of the skin, which my physician could not cure. I then send to me your Sarsaparilla in a store in this place, and remembering the popularity of the medicine in this place, I purchased three bottles, which had the desired effect of removing my disease entirely.

With high regards, yours, &c.,

J. H. MILLER, U. S. A.

FROM THE STATE OF MAINE.

The attention of the reader is called to the following certificate of a remarkable cure effected by using only five bottles of Sands Sarsaparilla:

Bangor, (Maine,) April 15, 1850.

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands: Gentlemen—This is to certify that the subscriber, of Sidney, County of Kennebec, State of Maine, has been afflicted more or less for seven years, with Scrofula, which continued to increase until last February, at which time I was so as to be unable to walk. I could not get on a boot or stocking, and had several large sores on my ankle and leg. In this situation, I was about to give up in despair, when I was advised to try Sands' Sarsaparilla. I had not much faith in it, but sent to your agents in Augusta, and got a bottle, which did me so much good that I got and took two bottles more, and continued until I had taken five bottles. I am now perfectly well. I pay my person who may read this letter, is afflicted with any disease of Scrofula, I would most sincerely recommend an advise them to make use of Sands's Sarsaparilla. If any person wishes further information in regard to my case, they can convince them of the healing power of this medicine.

Signed, STEPHEN C. HAYWOOD.

Augusta, April 25, 1850.

P S. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Haywood, and believe his statement above to be true.

GENUINE BALM OF COLUMBIA.

IF you wish a rich, luxuriant head of hair, free from dandruff and scurf, be sure to procure the genuine Balm of Columbia. In cases of baldness it will restore the hair to its original perfection by the use of this balm. Age, climate or condition appears to be no obstacle whatever; it also cures the dull, lifeless and ill-looking hair (when not gray) to the most beautiful color by this inestimable remedy. In all cases of fever it will be found the most pleasant wash that can be used. A few applications only are necessary to keep the hair from falling out. It strengthens the roots, it never fails to impart a rich glossy appearance, and as a perfume for the toilet it is unexcelled. It holds three times as much as any other (mixed) hair restoratives, and is more effectual.

☞ Caution—Never buy it unless you see the name of Comstock & Co. upon the wrapper, proprietors of the genuine article, or you are cheated with a counterfeit.

RHEUMATISM.

CONSTOCK'S Nerve and Bone Liniment, and Indian Vegetable Pills, is warranted to cure any case of Rheumatism, Gout, Contracted Cords and Sinews, or stiff Joints, Strengthens Weak Limbs, and is the best remedy who are crippled to walk lame. Also those afflicted with fits can be cured, or go without and suffer, as you please.

Council's Magical Pain Extractor—the World's Wonder—Pronounced so By all who have ever used it.

White Swellings, Inflammation, Pain in the Back, Weak Limbs, Tender or Sore Feet, and all Scrofulous Sores are speedily and permanently cured by Council's Magical Pain Extractor; after one of the Longest Ages in the Nice, Street, Tic, Poloureaux, Felon, Whitlow, Bilious, Burns, Scalds, &c. It is equally inspecific in all kinds of Old Chronic Diseases, such as Sore Nipples and Eyes, Sore Throat, White Swelling and Fistula, Piles, Bruises, Burns, Chilblains, Erysipelas, Blues, &c.

ELEGANT AND INVALUABLE Articles for the Toilet

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid

For Restoring, Preserving, and Beautifying the HAIR.

The following Certificate, from Dr. Winslow Lewis, one of the most eminent Physicians and Chemists, will tell you the estimation in which it is held by the scientific and learned, being one only of many similar ones:

Boston, Feb. 15, 1847.

Mr. Wm. Bogle—Sir: The preparation invented by you for the hair, has been extensively used in my family, and they give it the highest preference over all others on the market. It imparts a fine, thick, glossy appearance and beauty to the hair, and cleanses the skin of all impurities and dandruff, without producing any ultimate deleterious effects, which are unfortunately the result of many well-known patented compounds.

WINSLOW LEWIS.

It is an indispensable article for the Ladies, as it keeps the hair in curl and curl, and the skin of perfect order, free from dandruff and scurf. For children, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

BOGLE'S AMOLE, A COMPOUND FOR SHAVING.

This delightful article is totally different and far superior to anything yet invented for shaving. This fluid is distilled from the flowers or "soap plant" of California, an article used by the natives of that country for washing and thus, the use of it renders shaving delightful instead of disagreeable. Its vegetable and detergent properties have the immediate and most nourishing effects on the skin,—it soothes and allays irritation, and has a fine, thick, creamy lather, which does not dry on the face. It is a decided luxury to be shaved with this incomparable soap. It is done up in elegant style, and is calculated either for the traveller or for the toilet of the most fastidious connoisseur.

Bogle's Hebeiana.

FOR REFRESHING AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Eradicating Tans, Pimples, and other eruptions of the skin, and rendering it fair, delicate and blooming. It is equally efficacious in protecting the skin from the noxious effects of summer, and freezing blasts of winter, and is the most efficient and delicious article to be found at the toilet of fashion.

All the above articles have stood the test of the strictest investigation, and are warranted superior to anything yet invented; but, if not found to prove so on trial, the money, in all cases, will be refunded by my Agents,

WILLIAM BOGLE, Proprietor.

6 & DOSES

IN EACH BOTTLE—One Teaspoonful to Two Doses a day—One bottle containing 64 doses for Twenty-One Days.

Price $1,00 per Bottle, or Six Bottles for $5,00.

BRANTS PURIFYING EXTRACT

is now put up in QUART BOTTLES, of the same medical strength and efficacy as heretofore sold in smaller bottles.

☞ To protect purchasers of this Purifying Extract from the many worthless preparations of Sarsaparilla, that are now palmed off upon the public, we have adopted the following plan: Each bottle of Brant's Purifying Extract will have blown in the glass the words "BRANT'S PURIFYING EXTRACT," and a pamphlet, containing certificates of cures performed by this Extract will be wrapped around each bottle, so that no bottle can be sold without the pamphlet.

Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Cherry and Sassafras Barks, are strongly, yet not powerfully, concentrated, and three fluid ounces of each of these purifiers to each bottle of Brant's Extract, found in any bottle of medicine, called Extract of Sarsaparilla!

Let Second.—Because This Purifier also contains the medical properties and healing virtues of several other in the Purifying properties of which are powerful agents in Sarsaparilla, and for diseases are considered by the most scientific Physicians, as the best remedies for the cure of the diseases for which they are recommended, and the combination of these medicinal agents in Brant's Purifying Extract, renders it, as we believe, the most powerful and effectual medical agent, that has ever been offered to the public.

Roots, Barks, and Vegetables,

Only One Tablespoonful, three times a Day

But it is not so with Extract of Sarsaparilla, in consequence of its containing more fluid extract, and is therefore much concentrated and reduced in bulk, and is generally prescribed in doses of a teaspoonful, three times a day, and sometimes even a smaller dose than this, but in all cases, Brant's Purifying Extract of Sarsaparilla is the most powerful, concentrated, and effectual medicine of the kind ever offered to the public, and will cure in one-third the time, and at one-third the expense of any other Extract of Sarsaparilla, or Sarsaparilla Syrup, and a single bottle of Brant's Purifying Extract of Sarsaparilla, is worth Three, Four, or Five times more than a bottle of Sarsaparilla.

The above comparison does not, nor does the cures of Brant's Purifying Extract, in the medical virtues of Sarsaparilla and Sarsaparilla Syrups, in which it is sold, as we PROMISING and HEALING nothing more than what we can PERFORM, and Brant's Purifying Extract of Sarsaparilla is worth Three, Four, or Five times more than a bottle of Sarsaparilla.

The above comparison does not, nor does the cures of Brant's Purifying Extract, in the medical virtues of Sarsaparilla and Sarsaparilla Syrups, in which it is sold, as we PROMISING and HEALING nothing more than what we can PERFORM, and Brant's Purifying Extract of Sarsaparilla is worth Three, Four, or Five times more than a bottle of Sarsaparilla.

ONE BOTTLE OF BRANT'S PURIFYING EXTRACT has more efficacy and cures more impure blood than TEN Bottles of Sarsaparilla.

☞ Ten Bottles of Sarsaparilla, for One Dollar, One Bottle of Brant's Purifying Extract, for One Dollar.

One Bottle of Sarsaparilla should sell for Ten Cents.

CANCEROUS SCROFULA.

Mr. J. D. HALL, of Rome, Oneida Co., N. Y., was cured of Scrofula in 1845, after the Faculty had given him up as incurable. He was a witness in a cause in the Supreme Court in the City of New York, on the 9th of December, 1845, under the name of Circuit, as a witness.

A person in the City of New York had their face and neck covered with a cancerous article of medicine, called, "Indian Medicines" a combination of the poisonous materials. He was induced to try Brant's Purifying Extract. In the Supreme Court of the City of New York, in the presence of Judge Edmonds, and Judge Oakley, he testified that he was cured by Brant's Purifying Extract, and referred to J. S. Bosworth, Esq. of Lafayette-st, as a witness to whom he Referred to take the testimony. This evidence was taken in writing, and signed, and the Proprietors of Brant's Medicine had the same duly published in the newspapers of the city, and circulated extensively in the United States, and in Canada. The case of Mr. Hall was not doubted in Canada. The case of Mr. Hall was not doubted in Canada. The case of Mr. Hall was not doubted in Canada.

Many people are here daily receiving cures from the public notice, and have not yet published their testimonials, but will be published in due time.

FEMALE WEAKNESSES & COMPLAINTS.

No remedy offered to the public has ever been known to equal or approach in efficacy and the incidental weakness and irregularities of the sex, as BRANTS PURIFYING EXTRACT. It imparts no disagreeable sensation to the delicate organs, but by strengthening the system, regulating the circulation, and by purifying the blood, it eradicates all nervous irritability, &c. &c. complaints.

CHANGE OF LIFE,

from the pert to the woman, and the woman at will again become the girl, is invariably effected by the use of BRANTS PURIFYING EXTRACT. Females at the period, and all females should use it as to prevent any of the fatal diseases that frequently accompany the change.

Dyspepsia—Sour Stomach!

ATTICA, Genesee Co., February 1, 1847.

Messrs. WALLACE & CO.—Gentlemen: I was for more than a year, afflicted with a disease of the stomach. I was not eating for many months, without much pain, sickness, and vomiting, and was continually troubled with a sour stomach, and an unpleasant taste in the mouth. I procured a bottle of BRANTS MEDICINE, which relieved my sour stomach, and relieved the pain, sickness and vomiting, and I have used about one and one-half bottles of the Purifying Extract, and am entirely restored to health, and can eat anything without distress. I am now well and hearty, and can relish and eat anything without distress. I am now well and hearty, and can relish and eat anything without distress. Messrs. M. T. WALLACE & CO.—Gentlemen: I was for many years troubled with a disease of the womb, and a Nursing Sore Mouth, and was not able to attend to my business for several months. I was under the care of a physician, and took a variety of medicines, but found no relief. I was induced to try Brant's Purifying Extract, and after using one bottle, I found myself much relieved, and after using two bottles, I was entirely restored to health. I have since enjoyed good health, and have not been troubled with any of the complaints which I was afflicted with before. I have recommended Brant's Purifying Extract to many others, and in every case it has effected a cure. I am satisfied that it will cure any cough, cold, or affection of the throat, lungs, or chest, if any medicine can do it.
